No American folk group has lasted longer or amassed a more loyal following than Peter, Paul and Mary. Indeed, few groups of any genre have logged more years (45) or miles (countless) in direct, yearly touring, spreading the message and engaging the next (now four) generations.

During its now legendary career, the trio won five Grammy's, produced 13 Top 40 hits, of which 6 ascended into the Top 10 – as well as eight gold and five platinum albums. That Peter, Paul and Mary achieved such a rarefied level of commercial success without compromise is simply further evidence of their extraordinarily successful career—as much a mission accomplished as a musical career.

Continuing a centuries-old tradition of people raising their voices in song for the sake of freedom, with generation-defining recordings like "If I Had a Hammer," "Puff (The Magic Dragon)," "Blowin' in the Wind," "The Wedding Song," "Leaving on a Jet Plane," "Where Have All the Flowers Gone," and "500 Miles," to name but a few, having their music associated with causes and solutions is as natural as breathing for Peter, Paul and Mary.

Most recently, their individual and collective efforts have focused on such crucial issues as gun violence against children, the rights and organizing efforts of strawberry pickers in California, homelessness and world hunger.

Don't miss Peter, Paul and Mary at the Count Basie Theatre on Friday, 4/20 at 8 PM. Tickets are $100, $62.50, $52.50, $38.50 and may be purchased by calling the box office at 732-842-9000 or online at www.countbasietheatre.org
